

Latin America and the Caribbean UK Roadshow

25-29 March 2019

A call to action for experienced UK exporters who are keen to grow their business in Latin America and the Caribbean.

The Department for International Trade (DIT) is delighted to invite you to join our March 2019 roadshow event where senior experts from Latin America and the Caribbean will be updating UK companies on the latest opportunities in these vibrant markets.

Why attend?

The Latin America and Caribbean region is home to over 650million people where growing economies are demanding ever-higher quality products and services. British companies have seen their business expand in the region in recent years and we fully expect this growth to continue. Political change in the region means that Latin America and the Caribbean is more open to UK business than ever.

There are particularly strong opportunities in:

- | | | |
|------------------|----------------------|----------------|
| • Oil & Gas | • Healthcare | • Food & Drink |
| • Infrastructure | • Education | • Security |
| • Marine | • Financial Services | |
| • Mining | • Renewables | |

Jo Crellin, HM Trade Commissioner and our team of experts will be in the UK in March to give UK companies the latest advice.

The roadshow will look at opportunities in the following markets;

- | | | |
|-------------|-------------------|-------------|
| • Argentina | • Central America | • Peru |
| • Brazil | • Colombia | • Caribbean |
| • Chile | • Mexico | |

Who should attend?

Experienced exporting UK companies operating in the above sectors, who are already trading in overseas markets or are already trading in some regional markets but would like to expand. Companies will benefit from dedicated time with our market experts, through 1-2-1 meetings to obtain up-to-date information on the opportunities in their industry. Places are limited so please book early to avoid disappointment.
